KUDOS

"Whether they are performing a comic Hopak dance by Moussorgsky, a satirical Polka by Shostakovich, a romantic and lyrical Prelude by Scriabin, a flurry of brilliant passages in Rimsky-Korsakoff's Flight of the Bumblebee or the heroic gallop of Rossini's William Tell, the Chicago Brass Quintet is simply outstanding"

—Buerkle, American Record Guide

"Brass Quintet 'Joy to Behold' Among the world's premier ensembles the Chicago Brass Quintet is unequalled in its ability to play as a concise body."

—The Recorder and Time, Brockville Ontario

"Showmanship, ease before the large audience, near perfect ensemble and technical brilliance all contributed to the Chicago Brass Quintet's fine performance."

—The Honolulu Advertiser

Technical brilliance plus showmanship makes the international award-winning Chicago Brass Quintet one of the world's preeminent brass quintets, having toured throughout the United States and Canada as well as Europe, Asia, and South America.

Versatility best describes this brass ensemble as they delight audiences with compositions from Classical to Jazz, Broadway to Pops.

Highlights have included guest performances for the International Trumpet Guild conferences in New York and London, a two and a half week tour of Hawaii, performances at: the Kennedy Center, Eisenhower Hall at the West Point Academy and the Chautauqua Institute. Educational workshops have been given for the National Symphony brass in New York, Chicago's Merit Music program, the University of South Florida and Brigham Young University to name a few. The quintet has enjoyed a close association with Chicago's fine arts radio station WFMT broadcast on National Public Radio.

Their CD's Brassucopia for Crystal records, and America Voices for Centaur recordings traverse four centuries of music making which include works from Monteverdi to Gershwin and virtually everything in between.
